SCRIPTURE READING

Luke 24: 1-12

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to the hands of sinners and be crucified and on the third day rise again." Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

The word of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

In this often-overwhelming political moment, we at Hamline Church would like to hear about your thoughts and what troubles you. The results of the survey will give voice to your deepest concerns and challenges and provide Isaiah and faith communities in MN with data to craft strategies to address the problems facing our community, our state, and our nation. In today's climate, it is easy to feel helpless. Participating in Isaiah's Deep Listening Survey is one simple way to make a positive impact. Please join us Sunday, April 27 at 11:15am in the Parlor to participate in this important and productive process. Contact Roger Lynn for more information (roger.lynn1604@outlook.com).
