WELCOME

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Nyleve Hanf-Campbell

Sing to the Lord a new song; let every heart be tuned to grace.

We come, ready to be moved by the music of God's Spirit.

Through melodies and harmonies, God comforts the afflicted and unsettles the comfortable.

In beauty and dissonance, we hear the cry for justice and the promise of hope.

Today we join the song of prophets and saints through the ages.

Let everything that has breath praise the Lord!

* HYMN 57

O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing (v 1-3, 5, 7)

* PASSING THE PEACE OF CHRIST

The Peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

Share a sign of peace with your neighbors by greeting them in the way most comfortable for you.

TIME FOR THE CHILD IN US ALL

Tove Trelstad-Larsen, Director of Student Ministries

We invite children to come up to the chancel steps for a special message. After the message, children are invited to stay in worship as we celebrate Holy Communion together this week. Childcare is available for ages 5 and under in the Frolic Room.

SCRIPTURE

Acts 16:25-34

Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. All at once there was such a violent earthquake that it shook the prison's foundations. The doors flew open and everyone's chains came loose. When the jailer awoke and saw the open doors of the prison, he thought the prisoners had escaped, so he drew his sword and was about to kill himself. But Paul shouted loudly, "Don't harm yourself! We're all here!"

The jailer called for some lights, rushed in, and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. He led them outside and asked, "Honorable masters, what must I do to be rescued?"

They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your entire household." They spoke the Lord's word to him and everyone else in his house. Right then, in the middle of the night, the jailer welcomed them and washed their wounds. He and everyone in his household were immediately baptized. He brought them into his home and gave them a meal. He was overjoyed because he and everyone in his household had come to believe in God.

The word of God for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

IV. SANCTUS

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.
Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our God, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

RECEIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

This is God's table, and everyone without exception may have communion. There are two stations at the front, one in the back, and one for the east transept. Please raise your hand if you'd like to be served at your pew. A gluten free station is available in the front, just indicate that you would like that option. If you choose, you may kneel at the rail for prayer.
