OPENING PRAYER

Michaela Rolseth

God of the mountaintop and the valley,
on the holy mountain your light shone through Christ
and your voice spoke love over fearful disciples.
Shine that same light into our anxious hearts today.
When we are overwhelmed by what we see and hear, touch us as you touched them,
speak “do not be afraid” over our nervous systems,
and send us back into the world as a community that helps others breathe again.
In the name of Jesus, radiant and gentle,
Amen.

God beside me
God all around me
God within me

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our God, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
    Thy Kingdom come,
    Thy will be done,
    on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
    and forgive us our trespasses,
    as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
    but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Matthew 17:1-9

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became bright as light. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will set up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!" When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid." And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

The word of God for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.
